Filippa Evans assists clients with a variety of trade mark and design matters.

Filippa advises clients from a wide range of industry sectors on how to build, manage and maintain their trade mark portfolios. She has experience handling both contentious and non-contentious matters.

After joining Reddie & Grose in September 2013, Filippa worked as a patent secretary until moving across to the trade mark team in 2015. She qualified as a Chartered Trade Mark Attorney in 2019.

Filippa graduated from Cardiff University with a Law LLB degree. Whilst at Cardiff, she studied Intellectual Property as one of her final year modules and this sparked her interest in pursuing a career in this field.

In her spare time, Filippa enjoys travelling to sunny places, listening to music and playing the bassoon in a local orchestra.
