Isabelle Tate joined Reddie & Grose in September 2018 and is a member of the trade mark team.

She graduated with an LLB English law with Australian law degree from Kings College London where she took IP as a final year module and joined a team working on a live trade mark dispute. As part of her degree she spent one year studying at Monash University in Melbourne, Australia.

Isabelle has a keen interest in travelling, having taken a year out to travel around South America & Europe. She also follows her interests in performing arts with frequent trips to the theatre; she loves a good musical.
